Old New York

POST CARD

THE ADDRESS TO BE WRITTEN ON THIS SIDE

Middle Church, A.D. 1751. This strange and picturesque edifice is the famous Middle Church, and is typical of the architecture of the eighteenth century in New York. In the background can be seen the old Post Office, a building that in style closely resembled Middle Church.

Raphael Tuck & Sons' Postcard Series No. 2327. "Old New York."

ART PUBLISHERS TO THEIR MAJESTIES THE KING & QUEEN.